"Dreams, books, are such a world; and books, we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure and good.
Round these, with tendrils strong as flesh and blood,
Our pastime and our happiness will grow."

William Wordsworth

To Mr. Ralph Minichello we respectfully dedicate this issue of the Maple.

Mr. Minichello has been on the Farm Staff at Essex County Agricultural School for 53 years.

Seldom does an ex-student visit the school without wanting to know how "Ralph" is doing. His cheerful ways and witty sense of humor have made us all feel very much at ease with him.

For being both a friend and a patient teacher, we would like to thank him.

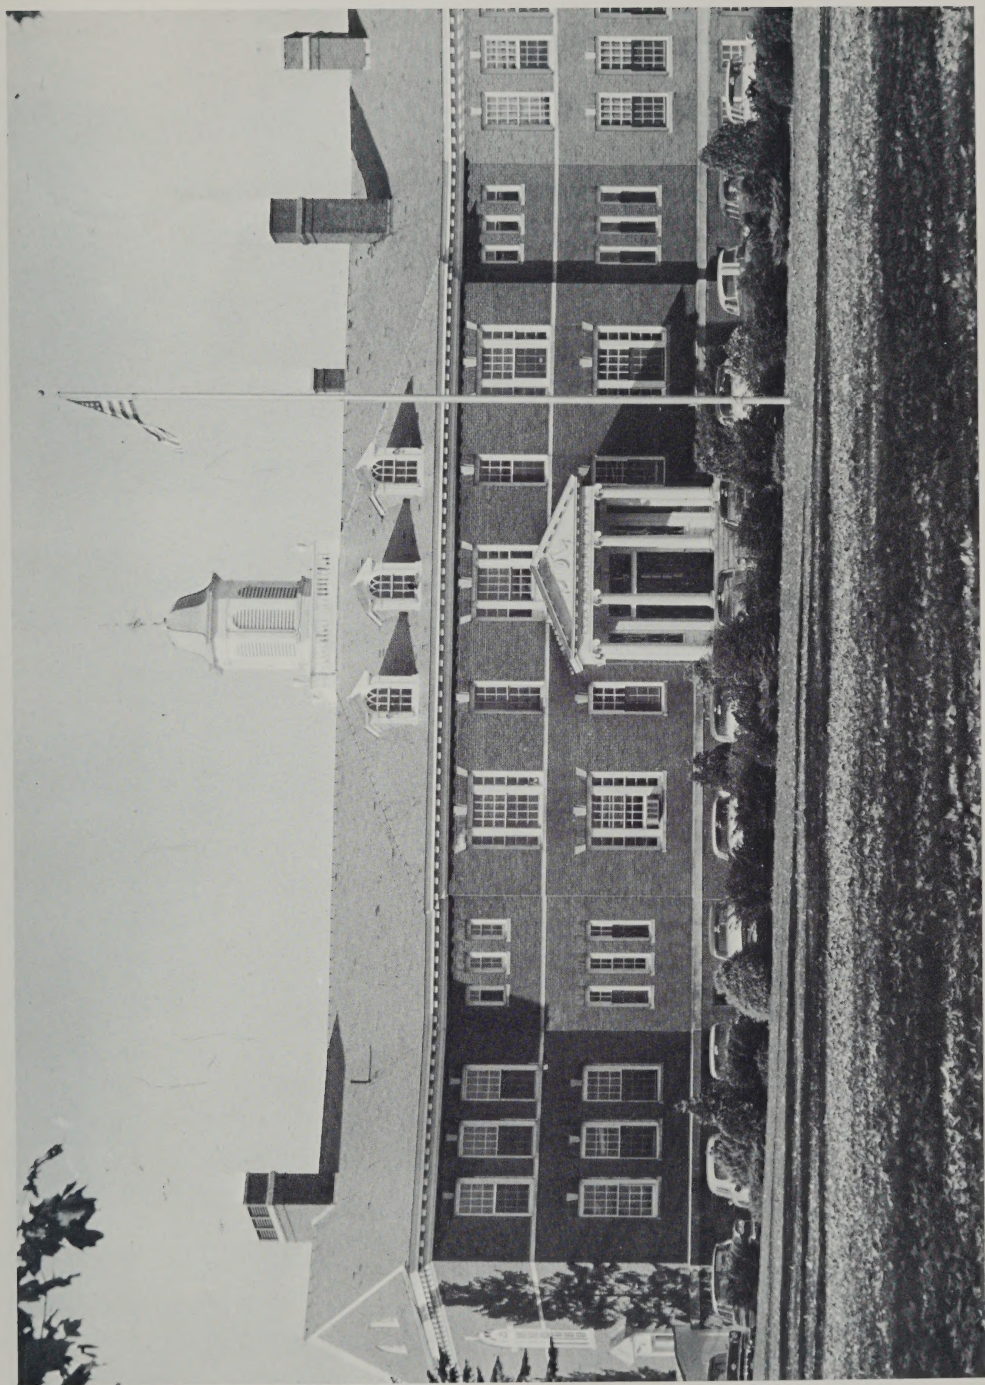

To Mrs. Franklin Maude, the last graduating class of the Homemaking School dedicate this issue of "The Maple".

Mrs. Maude, our educational Manager, has also been our Senior Class advisor. She has helped our class through many difficulties especially those pertaining to our Senior Prom and Banquet. Without her help the Senior Prom would not have been such a great success.

We, the Graduating Class of 1962, wish to express our thanks to Mrs. Maude for the help, guidance and kindness she has extended to us through our school years, individually and as a class.

A young man named Richard Churchill leaves the ability to earn high wages in the school greenhouse to Ken Sylviay.

Want some ice skates? Well, it's for certain Nicholas Lisk does not, for he's leaving them to Bill McDonald. He also is leaving the school greenhouse to the capable Mr. Muldoon.

We, the Seniors of Essex Aggie, leave to the students that follow us the hopes and fond memories which we have had in Essex, and for the future, whatever you do you will never forget us or the Aggie.

BOYS' PROPHECY

While sitting back reading the Maple of the class of 1962, I've just realized that 10 years have passed since I've seen my old classmates. I think I'll take the day off and see how they are all making out. Well, how about that, Bob Buchanan is head of the Farm Bureau down at Waltham. Talking with him is Steve Pretanik; you see Steve is the warehouse manager and they are getting things straightened out about hiring boys from the Aggie for the coming summer. Over on the highway I see that Ray Bessom owns a scooter company. Business is really booming. Ha! Look who the mechanics are- Stan Fishman and Mark Wettingil. You couldn't beat that if you tried.

Harold Bowden and Charlie Grigoreas are still over at the Waltham field station grinding away. Charlie is the foreman now, but Harold is still just a worker making a tremendous income of $65 per week. Have fun men!

Down at the Aggie I see Paul McNaughton is the head of the Fruit Department.

Paul tells me that Tom Nowell has a tobacco farm down in Alabama and is making a slight profit of about $20,000 per week. Tom sits behind a desk with a cigar in his mouth and tells his foreman Verne Hardenbrook to tell his workers what to do. No hoe for Tom.

Wow! Look whose teaching Driver's Education; it's Lloyd Campbell. I see Lloyd is having a little trouble with one of the student drivers, but Lloyd tells him to stay calm and relax because when he started out, he was the same way. Good luck Lloyd!

What's that, sign I see? Philip Lebednik, Educational Manager? Yep, I guess that's right. Phil is fighting hard to get some new buildings for the campus.

George Grant is the head of the Dairy Department and, as you know, George is not happy unless someone else is sad or mad; so he gives the students 2 hours of homework every night, "Nice guy."

I see that Paul Johnston and Dick Perron have gone into partnership in the dairy business; it has all the modern conveniences. Don't work too hard, men!

Bert Cole is making out quite well with a hatchery over in Ipswich, and look whom he's talking with, Don Gilday! You see Don is a "gentleman" farmer and he has a few chickens on his place about which he is getting some information.

Down the road I see that Mr. William Carroll has gone into the turkey dressing business. I wonder how he ever got into that.

Ronnie Tilton, Bob Nihan and Dick Churchill have just signed a 10 year contract with the Boston Bruins. Boy, those fellows really love to skate. Lots of luck, boys.

Well, well, look who has gone into the Restaurant business, Walter Lunt and Dick Lee. Dick has a lot of work to do, waiting on customers, sweeping floors; washing windows, cooking, etc. while Walter sits in the back eating all the profits up.

Frank Poitras and Paul Sweeney have gone into the greenhouse business. Business is really good, but the doctor bills are high. Paul is always bumping into the ceiling. I guess that we will either have to raise or he will have to shrink.

Bernie "E. J." Levesque is the head of Essex County Co-Op in Topsfield. Right now he is trying to figure out how many boys he will hire from the Aggie this summer. He won't hire people off the street because he can get boys from the Aggie for $.50 per hour. Ha! Ha! Have fun "E. J."

Well who'se this I see all dressed up? It's Nick Halford, oh pardon me! Doctor Nicholas Halford. Nick has a very profitable animal hospital in Marblehead.

John Filfalt has gone into the undertaking business I see. Business is Dead!

Guess who has gone into the dairy farming business, John Cahill.

Paul Beauvais is a very prosperous greenhouse owner in Manchester. You all know how Butch Gibley loves to go down to Bishop Fenwick High School to see the girls! Well, now he runs a popcorn concession stand there. Have fun Butch!

Chester Chmiel is still driving his overdrive stick shift Willys! But he has a good flower shop in Peabody. And he is married to Bob Flowers old girl, Judy. Look who is out in Las Vegas, Frank Graham; he runs a protection racket out there. They call him Cracker.

Thomas Jarvis is still looking for that tree that jumped out in front of him. You have to watch out for those sneaky trees when you're driving Tom.

You know how much Wayne Lappas loves Mr. Muldoon. Well, he's the president of his fan club. Rah! Rah!

Keith Hughes is still trying to learn how to ride a motor scooter! He is married now and has 8 children!

Nick Lisk just ran out of gas on Route 1 going to work. The boys that ride with him won't give him gas money. Terry Livingston was a great chef for Colonial but he ate so much of the food that they fired him. Now he sells Metrecal.

Bill Pelletier is still trying to figure out if he should or shouldn't write the class prophecy.

Doug McDowell is a skindiving instructor and a salvage expert. Watch out for those ten legged octupuses.

Bob Peters is as careful as ever when using power tools now. He'll be out of the hospital in a few days.

Walden owns his own wholesale business; his best sellers are pink locusts. His best customer is a fellow by the name of Ralph.

Bob Plegge owns Marshalls store now; all you have to do is be friendly is Bob's slogan!

Yours truly,
James M. Healey

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Today started out like any other day in my busy schedule as a well to do doctor's wife. I completed my morning activities and remembered a luncheon engagement at the Colonial Club, so I jumped into my Cadillac and was off. I met my associates, members of the Women's Club, there and we began to order. The waiter insisted they had no Metrecal and I insisted on seeing the head chef. The waiter escorted me to the kitchen and, to my surprise, the head chef was Jean Jaffarian a former classmate at the Essex Homemaking School. I knew that Jean had always liked to cook.

We sat down and began to reminisce about our school days and our classmates. Jean told me she was married and had three children. Her husband Mark watched them while baby sitting for the minks on their farm. I could see that her husband was very successful by the mink apron she was wearing. I asked Jean if she had heard from any of our former classmates as it has been ten years since graduation. Although ten years doesn't seem too long a lot has happened in the lives of our classmates.

Jean told me that Carol Johonnett, a very intelligent and talented girl, was a dress designer for stout women and was doing very well. I asked her about Paulette Landry whom I remembered as being exceptionally good in spelling; she was always correcting me. Paulette is in Hollywood working on a newspaper writing a gossip column. I also learned that Judy Hall, who had a way of convincing people of just about anything, is also in Hollywood. She is a smashing success as an actress for Medic.

Jean asked me if I had heard from Marie Odette, Marie called me a few weeks before. She is happily married and has seven children. She lives in Minnesota so our phone call wasn't too long but I did ask her what she did for excitement. She said she tested thunderbirds for speed at a nearby race track. Marie had seen Andrea Taylor, a very attractive girl. Andrea has filled her life ambition of becoming a model. She is a successful model for the Playtex Company modeling gloves.

When I found out that Janet Skelly is a marriage counselor, I was amazed. Jean told me that Janet knew quite about marriage since she has been married four times. These marriages may have not been too successful but her business is. I remembered Janet as a smart girl with a shining personality. I was sure she would be a success at whatever she did.

Jean said, "Someone is missing, what about Sally Purrington?" Sally and I were the best of friends in school and after graduation we kept in touch. She went on to school to become a make-up artist. This surprised Jean because Sally never used make-up of any kind, and now she is making her living displaying cosmetics.

I asked Jean if she had heard from any of the two year Homemaking Course. She said, "yes, Nancy Robishaw is working here at the Colonial Club as a veterinarian for their prize riding horses". At just that moment Nancy walked in. I asked her if she would join me and my friends, for lunch. We returned to the dining room and the waiter set a place for Nancy at my table.

While we were waiting to be served I found that Nancy was able to tell me what all of her classmates were doing. I asked first about the girls from Newburyport, Sally Baribino, Elaine Marcoux and Susan Packer. You remember Nancy told me, what good spaghetti dishes Sally prepared for our cottage meals. Sally and her husband are running a Mediterranean Restaurant featuring Italian and Greek specialty dishes. Elaine Marcoux, always such an attractive girl, is now a dancing teacher specializing in the swirl which is the 1927 version of the old twist. She Packer is teaching French at the Newburyport High School. She used quite a bit of it in school.

Several of our classmates are in the entertainment field, Nancy continued, as a swinging guitar player Janet Paridicw can rip it up. Her husband taught her and they play as a team called "The Family Affair" - Janet Crutcher, her husband and their seven children who also play the guitars. Our own Janet Collins is now a great actress, she should be, she did a lot of acting in school especially in Miss Levitt's class.

I asked Nancy if any of the girls were in the business world. "Oh, yes Nancy replied, "You will find Susan Nelson's name in the yellow pages under Nellies Judo lessons. She and Billy are now teaching jiu-jitsu." Juanita Earle is the owner of "Earle's Dunc it". Her favorite driver is Frankie. Judy Batchelder runs the "You rip them - we sew them" shop in Newburyport. Now that there is no Homemaking School she mends all the uniforms for the football and hockey teams at the Aggie.

Time passed so quickly, we were soon finishing our dessert, a delicious parfait that reminded me of those which we had served in the Larkin Cottage. I glanced at my watch. Its almost time for me to be running along, I said, but I do want to hear what Charline Burbine, Nancy Field and Judi Lawton are doing.

Judi Lawton is the first woman bank president in Essex County replied Nancy it is very funny because she could not keep her money very long. Nancy Field is running a nursing school. She has had so much practice with her own children she decided to enter this field as a venture proved very successful and she has been asked to lecture on a television program, "Guiding the pre-school Child".

She also told me the Charline Burbine was very successful as a columnist and she has taken over the "Dear Abby Program" and she has ten secretaries and the answer all the mail, mail from all over the country.

As we finished our dessert the waiter came, through the dining room paging Nancy Robishaw. One of the horses had broken out of its box stall. Nancy left quickly. It was then quarter to four and we had to pick up our children at a private school they attended.

As we drove along we made plans for our class reunion of '62 at my summer home at Cape Cod.

SUPPOSE

Suppose Norma Spring hadn't helped Marie in clothing class. Marie wouldn't have cut a hole in her dress, put the zipper in wrong, and have been the last one to finish.

Suppose Marie Odette got caught doing something wrong. She'd stay after. (with a little company Norma).

Suppose Sally Purington didn't have such a large supply of gum and candy to eat in clothing class. Sallie wouldn't have so many toothaches.

Suppose Jean Jaffarian hated minks. Mark would raise rabbits.

Suppose Carol Johonnett wasn't always on a diet. Maybe we'd see a side of her we've never seen before.

Suppose Paullette Landry didn't work nights. She wouldn't skip days.

Suppose Andrea Taylor didn't buy make up for a week. She could afford to be a cheerleader.

Suppose Janet Skelly didn't go in for cake decorating. That might really take the cake.

Suppose Judy Hall wasn't always sick. Then someone else would try out the sick room for a change.

Suppose Sally Larabino didn't figet in class. That's when we would all begin to wonder.

Suppose Janet Paradise didn't have to compete with a fender guitar. She would be a lot happier.

Suppose Juanita and Nancy Field were six footers. Poor Frankie and Dick.

Suppose Janet Collins didn't have such a conspicuously loud voice. The school wouldn't have so many broken windows.

Suppose Charlene Burbine cleaned out her locker once in a while. She might be able to get the door closed.

Suppose Susan Nelson wasn't always blushing. She wouldn't look so guilty all the time.

Suppose Nancy Robishaw wasn't so tall. She wouldn't have such a hard time getting boys.

Suppose Elaine Marcoux did not do the twist so much. There might be so much more of her.

SPORTS

Under this broad title "Sports", we find the beginning of a new era at Essex Aggie. Although our football and basketball teams, which were largely dominated by underclassmen, did not produce winning seasons by any means, the promise for the future is bright. Next year's teams will have a new gym to start their season's athletic activities in the proper manner and, if the experienced gained this year proves as valuable as coaches Potter, Powell and Lake think that it will, many victories can be expected in the future. To our gallant seniors who fought so hard for one victory, we dedicate this essay--for it can be truly said of them, "Winning or losing is not what matters, but how you play the game." They certainly learned HOW to play the game in a genuine, sportsman--like manner.

HOCKEY TEAM

Hockey, was viewed with much pessimism at the beginning of this School year, but the Aggie spirit came through with what proved to be the most exciting, successful and expensive season in the school's history. Urged on by the students, the F.F.A. donated $125 and the School contributed $100, while the team members voluntarily gave over $350 of their own money to insure a good season.

Although only 16 students came out for Hockey, they put in a total of 394 hours of practice and games during the season and ranked up an 18-8-3 record. The team should be complimented for their fine spirit considering, not only the adverse conditions under which games were played, but also the fact that they had to pay each time they came to a game.

Special praisie goes to Captain Dick Churchill, award winner of the James N. Cole award. Praise also goes to Ron Tilton, Frank Poitras, Tom McElroy, Bruce (Snookums) Palmer and goalie Bill McDonald for their spirit in play, excellence in sportsmanship and their continuing endurance throughout the season. Good luck to next year's team and to those who graduates this year.

A PSALM OF LIFE

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
 "Life is but an empty dream!"
 For the soul is dead that slumbers,
 And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! life is earnest!
 And the grave is not its goal;
 Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
 Was not spoken of the soul.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
 With a heart for any fate;
 Still achieving, still pursuing,
 Learn to labor and to wait.
